

Eastern Desert, which accounts for nearly two-thirds of the total land area of the country, is the home of the Bedouins, whose ability to prosper in this harsh environment is legendary. Despite the extreme climate of this semi-arid desert region, the Bedouins raise sheep and goats for domestic consumption, as well as for export.